

I am very concerned over the use of (BPL) Broadband over power lines as to the interference I am sure it will cause. Especially in the Radio Frequency spectrums used for all the many communications in use today.

I am in hopes that the FCC will take careful consideration and much research before permitting this use of the power lines. Even with the present conditions, we have some noise problems from them.

Thank you.